empowering individuals
one step at a time

Join us and support Kennedy-Donovan Center's first-ever virtual Walk for KDC!

By becoming an official event sponsor, your company stands with those who face their developmental and other challenges head on, each and every day.

Walk with us on Sunday, October 4. With every step you take and dollar you raise, you have the power to empower!

KDC's skilled team partners with children, individuals and families, in communities throughout Central and Southeastern Massachusetts, to deliver lifechanging services that have an impact for life. This means setting goals and turning challenges into opportunities as we work toward every individual's full potential, no matter their circumstances.

Your participation in the Walk for KDC ensures that those who rely on us most will continue to receive a wide breadth of family- and community-based services. Your sponsorship directly supports your local community and offers your company the opportunity to engage employees, build brand loyalty, and fulfill corporate responsibility objectives.
